- return the room to its original condition including cleanliness and arrangement
- notify the library if my event is canceled
- follow all policies and regulations
- pay any applicable fees for loss of equipment or damage to equipment or facilities
- make arrangements to test AV components in advance, if needed

I will not:

- allow my meeting or event attendees to remain inside the building beyond open hours (or the two-hour extension, if allowed by EPL staff)
- host holiday or other private parties in an EPL meeting room
- sell merchandise, conduct fundraising, solicit contacts for later sales or placement of orders, or charge admission fees
- require attendees to provide contact information
- list or imply that the EPL is a sponsor or co-host of my event, nor will I share the library's logo or phone number with my promotional materials

This application will be kept on file for your organization for one year, or until the policy or form is updated (whichever comes first). At that point you will be asked to complete a new form.
