

About the community

Estherville is located in Northwest Iowa, at the crossroads of Highways 4 and 9. We're conveniently located just a 15-minute drive from the Iowa Great Lakes, 3 hours from the Minneapolis International Airport and 3.5 hours from Des Moines International Airport.

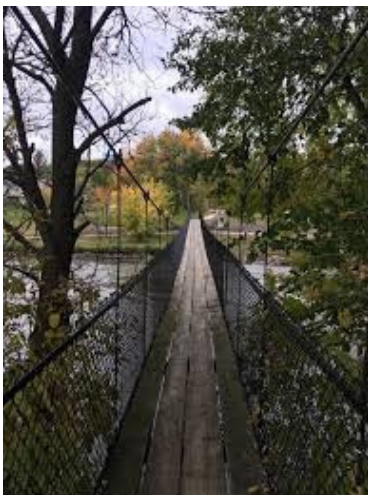

- Estherville population: 5,904
- Emmet County population: 9,388
- Size: 5.32 sq mi (13.79 km²)
- Elevation: 1,296 ft (395 m)
- Time zone: Central Standard Time

Estherville offers a K-12 public school, Iowa Lakes Community College, Avera Holy Family Hospital, both a radio station and local newspaper, and a small airport. The Law Enforcement Center is located within one block of the library, as are the Courthouse and City Offices. There are three hardware stores, and a variety of local businesses to meet your printing, party supply, gift shopping, crafting, clothing, and many other needs. The city boasts a variety of restaurants, two grocery stores, nine city parks, a new pool and splash pad, several paved bike trails, a regional wellness center and several privately-owned gyms. The Des Moines River runs through town and water trail access is provided. Within Emmet County you'll find ample fishing, hunting, and hiking opportunities and also an impressive local history museum.

For more information about the community, visit our Chamber website: <https://www.estherville.org/>

