NORMAN BRUE

1926 - 2009

Norman Brue, 83, of Forest City died July 8, 2009 at the Muse Norris Inpatient Unit in Mason City.

Funeral services were held July 11, 2009 at Fertile Lutheran Church in Fertile with Lay Pastor David Halverson officiating. Burial was at Brush Point Cemetery in rural Fertile.

Norman O. Brue, son of Oscar and Nettie (Sheimo) Brue was born May 31, 1926 in Fertile. He graduated from Fertile High School and entered the U. S. Navy, serving in the Pacific on the USS Nicollet stationed in Guam.

Upon his return, he began college at Waldorf and continued his education at Drake University in Des Moines, graduating with a degree in business.

On June 25, 1945, he married Marilyn (Marty) Wilson, then a science teacher at the Fertile High School. They relocated to Des Moines, where Norman began his business career and family.

Norman's work as an oil industry executive with Sinclair Refining Co. and British Petroleum Oil Co. took them to many places they called "home" -- from cities throughout the Midwest to across the Atlantic to southwest England. During their three years there, they traveled extensively throughout Great Britain and Europe, learning and appreciating the various lands and cultures.

In 1969, they returned to the U.S., establishing their home in upstate New York, New Jersey and Ohio.

Retirement in 1983 took Norman and Marty to a home on Lake Winnebago in Wisconsin. There, they treasured the love of their four grandchildren and enjoyed the nature of their surroundings. After 10 years in the summer of 1997, they returned to Iowa to make Forest City their final home.

Norman was an avid sports fan, playing high school and college basketball and baseball. He especially enjoyed watching the Chicago Cubs! Also, he took pleasure in the gifts of nature ranging from bird watching and fishing to gardening.

Particularly proud of his Fertile heritage and Norwegian Lutheran descent, Norman emulated his ancestors' honest and hard-working traits. His unwavering respect and compassion for those around him were inspirational, his lasting legacy. ...Besides, he was a really fun guy.

He died shortly after his arrival at Muse Norris Hospice in Mason City and is survived by two children, Nancy (Ross) Deye of Traverse City, MI and Randal (Gayle) Brue of Orlando, FL; four grandchildren, Stephanie, Mitchel, Brandon and Marisa Brue; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, and siblings (Stanley Brue, Marcella Purcell and Phyllis Jones).

Our deepest sympathy to the family.

Patricia "Pat" McCormick

1939 - 2009

Pat was born on Nov. 13, 1936 and lived her childhood in Manly, where she graduated from high school in 1955.

Pat was united in marriage to Larry McCormick on Feb. 21, 1955. They remained devoted to each other until Larry's death in 1998. Pat & Larry managed the bowling alley in Manly. Pat was a devoted wife and mother.

Pat is survived by her children, Debbie McCormick, Fertile, Paula McCormick, Fertile, Kelly McCormick, Joice; her three grandchildren Robert, April and Logan McCormick, along with her sister, Shirley Solberg; two brothers, Gordon (Delores) Marsh and Roger Marsh, all of Mason City, plus many friends, family and extended family.

Her husband, Larry; 10-year-old-son, Robert McCormick, sister, Evelyn Berry and brother, Richard Marsh preceded her in death.

Our deepest sympathy to the family.

EVA E. STROHMAN

MORE NORVEEJUN HUMOR

A Norwegian was recently arrested for passing bogus $2 bills. The way he did it was to erase the zero from $20 bills.

The Norwegians are planning to launch a space flight to the sun. When asked by a reporter how they planned to avoid burning up, a Norwegian spokesman answered, "VE figure on going at night."

Sven was flying on an airliner when the plane encountered extremely turbulent conditions. A nervous old lady, expecting disaster, turned around to Sven and implored, "Please do something religious." So, Sven started a Bingo game.

Ole met a guy the other day who is half Norwegian and half Palestinian Arab. His name? "Yasser Yubetcha."

Jens is on a new diet. He never eats while his wife is talking.

An itinerant lawyer name Blaine Nels Simons was working on a case in a rural community. When his car broke down, he was forced to borrow a horse from a country preacher, Rev. Donald Anderson. The preacher gave Simons instructions on how to make the horse go and stop. "First, you say, 'Praise the Lord' and the horse will go. And to make him stop, just say, 'Amen'." So the lawyer started on his journey by saying, "Praise the Lord." And sure enough, the horse took off. In fact, on a fast gallop. This startled the lawyer to such an extent that when he began panicking because of the horse's speed, he forgot the word to make him stop. Just as the horse was careening toward a cliff and appeared about to go over the cliff, the lawyer suddenly remembered the word, "Amen." And sure enough, the horse stopped right at the cliff's edge. With a huge sigh of relief, the lawyer mopped his brow and fervently uttered, "PRAISE THE LORD!"

FERTILE GARDEN CLUB

The June Garden Club meeting was held at the home of Betty Waddington on June 9th. Kristin Mikes was co-hostess. Penny Miller read the "Gardner Creed." We honored the flag with the Pledge of Allegiance.

Roll call was "What would you do with a million dollars.?" That was very interesting.

Penny Miller had the lesson on "Floral Arranging." There are always new ideas and ways of doing things.

Business meeting was discussing and applying for grants and places of help in beautifying our community. We also had a plant swap among the members.

Our next meeting will be a Garden tour to visit the Willowglen Nursery in Decorah with dinner at Hearts Tea and Tarts. Jenn Miller had the thought for the day. Meeting was adjourned with singing the table prayer.

Fern Midtgaard, Reporter

The July meeting was a trip to Decorah. We left Fertile around 8:30 and spent the day enjoying many interesting places.

Our first stop was the Seed Savers Exchange. It's hard to believe there are so many different seeds for one plant.

We ate lunch at a place called La Ranah, after which we toured the Willowglen Nursery. It was a very nice day and we had the privilege of seeing many beautiful flowers.

Who Are These Kids, and Why Are They Calling Me Mom? 31

A teenage boy was taking care of his baby sister while his parents went shopping. He decided to go fishing, so he had to take her along.

"I'll never do that again!" he told his mother that evening. "I didn't catch a thing!"

"Oh, next time I'm sure she'll be quiet and not scare the fish away," his mother said.

The boy answered, "It wasn't that. She ate all the bait."

Youth:

By the time your face clears up,
 your mind gets fuzzy.

Chuck Swindoll recalled how, during their first week of parenthood, he and his wife realized that what they really had was not a child but a cross between The Terminator and The Swamp Thing. "I mean, this creature sleeps when you're awake and is wide awake when you're asleep, and has a set of lungs to drown out a Concorde jet," said Swindoll. "My wife used to say, 'Honey, I'm sort of forgetting what our baby's face looks like, I'm spending so much time at the other end.'"

I can see clearly now. My brain is gone.

HUNTING SEASON—The Wednesday night church coincided with the last day of hunting season. During the service, our pastor asked who had bagged a deer. No one raise a hand.
Puzzled, the pastor said, “I don’t get it. Last week many of you said you wouldn’t be at church Sunday because of hunting season. I had the whole congregation pray for your deer.”
One hunter said, “Well, preacher, it worked. They’re all safe.”
