

ESTHERVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY
GROUP STUDY ROOM POLICY

Group Study Room Use:

- Patrons may use their library cards to check out the Group Study Room from the main circulation desk. ~~Room capacity is 8 people.~~ Capacity is currently restricted to 4 people due to Covid until further notice. Overdue, expired card, and fee limitations apply.
- Private meetings are permitted, but private parties such as showers, reunions, etc. will be excluded.

Fees and Sales:

- Fees may not be assessed to participants / attendees of Group Study Room events.
- Events must not be commercial in nature, including soliciting customers or clients. Personal or business profits may not be the chief aim of a meeting, nor may money or goods be exchanged.
- Work related meetings are permitted, and services may be provided, so long as no direct sales are taking place.
- Fundraising in the library meeting rooms is prohibited except for events that benefit and are sponsored by the library.

General Regulations:

- There is no guarantee of privacy or quiet.
- There will be no ongoing reservations beyond 4 dates per month. Exceptions may be made for community or government services. The room cannot be utilized as office space.
- The room may not be reserved exclusively for display or exhibition purposes.
- The Group Study Room must be left in the same condition in which it was found. This includes cleanliness and arrangement.
- Those in Grade 7 and over are eligible to reserve the space.
- Theft or damage will be billed to the person who checked out the room.
- Library policies and federal, state, and local laws must be adhered to at all times.
- Items will not be attached to the walls of the room.
- The Library Board of Trustees and the City of Estherville are not responsible for accidents, injury, or loss of individual property incurred by groups or individuals while using the meeting rooms.
- The Group Study Room will be made available during regular open hours only.
- Staff on duty have discretionary authority to remove users from study rooms should behavior be inconsistent with the room's purpose and / or is disruptive to others.

The Library Director (or designee) reserves the right to disallow use of the space to any group or individual that violates these regulations or that is disorderly or objectionable in any way.

Approved: April, 2016 (temporary capacity restrictions set in place in 2021 and 2022)

Reviewed:

Revised: