Roll Call: Present: Jerry Butler, VP Rhonda Jones, Secretary Chrissy Bowers

Also Present: Library Director Ellen Heather and Brad Cowman, City Liaison, Joseph Crook, and Cordell Pace

Absent: Ryan Houska

Tentative Agenda: Motion by Bowers, second by Jones to approve the agenda. Motion passed.

City Liaison: Brad updated us on the budget and city hall meeting.

Public Audience: Joseph Crook mentioned the city should pay for our furnace. He let us know the Lions will purchase bikes for the Easter Egg Hunt 2024. Joseph mentioned that they are looking for members to join the Lions.

Other Business:

- Easter Egg hunt is going well, we have received donations in $70 cash, $50 check and lots of toys and candy dropped off.
- We are getting digital sign from our grant money for outside along with some lighting for the outside area.
- We have some new programs for the month.

Crazy 8 Math Club, starts spring break week, we have a movie and crafts.

We have a senior lunch and documentary; Casey's General Store is providing the meal. Thank you, Casey's, for the meal.

- We are putting out a flyer for a new rural Board member.
- We are going to contact local businesses for a Storytime reading.

Director's Comments: Thank the board for doing a great job advocating for our library and taking on the role of Trustees.

Trustee Comments: The library staff are doing a good job.

Meeting Adjourned: Motion by Bowers, second by Jones to adjourn at 7:27 pm. Motion passed.

Respectfully submitted: Board of Trustee
